Big Four May Reach Limited German Accord

Reports Indicate Some Agreement On Austria May Also Be Reached

AWAIT VISHINSKY'S FORMAL ANSWER

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, I. N. S.

PARIS, June 14.—The western powers and Russia were reliably reported today working out an agreement on Austria and possibly a limited accord on Germany.

Prospects for some kind of Big Four understanding at the current Paris conference brightened, as the west awaited Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky's answer to its last proposal for Berlin and German trade.

To Furnish Reply
Vishinsky, reportedly in contact with Moscow yesterday, will furnish the Kremlin's reply this afternoon.

Reliable sources meanwhile, disclosed that the Austrian question also came up for discussion during recent secret four-power meetings, and that the Soviets indicated eagerness to effect an Austrian agreement which would pave the way for a peace treaty.

Western experts were said to be drawing up a draft accord on Austria, in view of the encouraging nature of the secret meetings.

The western condition for conclusion of a peace treaty and withdrawal of occupation troops is said to be Russia's abandonment of its economic stranglehold on key industries in eastern Austria.

Western spokesmen warned that in spite of Russia's apparent willingness to negotiate on Austria, it is still unclear whether Vishinsky will subscribe to the west's condition.

Conciliatory Attitude
On two other controversial issues, Vishinsky was understood to have adopted a definitely conciliatory attitude.

Miners Observe Second Day Of Strike Of Week

PITTSBURGH, June 14.—(INS)—The nation's 450,000 coal miners began the second day of their one-week "stabilizing" strike today with only one discordant note.

A brief scuffle occurred at Clarksburg, W. Va., yesterday where coal from non-union strip mines was dumped on the highway.

Although some observers identified the "dumpers" as members of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, the affair was passed over as "one of those things."

A widely circulated report from Washington, meanwhile, dealt with the appointment of a coal industry coordinator whose duties would include negotiating with the UMW for the soft coal industry and allocating production evenly among members of the industry.

The report stated further that Harry M. Moses, president of the H. C. Frick Coal company, a U. S. Steel subsidiary, would be offered the post at a salary estimated between $75,000 to $100,000 per year.

Railroads have furloughed more than 31,000 employees as coal shipments were halted by the walkout. Also affected by the "stabilization" were timber workers in a three-state area around Uniontown, Pa. The production of mine timber was reduced about 75 per cent by the miners.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(INS)—Sen. McClellan (D. Ark.), predicted today that his committee's plan to cut federal spending by five to ten per cent may receive support from two-thirds of the Senate.

McClellan hopes as well that the proposal will get the nod from the Senate Democratic Policy Committee, meeting this afternoon to consider floor strategy.

The bill reported by McClellan's executive expenditures committee would direct the President to make the percentage cut in fiscal 1950. The Senator said the measure now bears the signatures of at least 30 Senators, with more sponsors expected.

U. S. Steel And Miners' Parley Stalled Today

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—(INS)—Contract talks between the United Mine Workers and U. S. Steel's captive mines were stalled today, reportedly awaiting the selection of a coal "czar" to negotiate with John L. Lewis for the entire industry.

Reports that Harry M. Moses, president of H. C. Frick Coal Co., a U. S. Steel-owned firm, would be named spokesman for the industry with Lewis' approval circulated after yesterday's short conference between the two men in Philadelphia.

Moses and Lewis scheduled the talks ostensibly to negotiate a contract for some 20,000 so-called "captive mines". They recessed after a meeting of about four hours until June 27.

However, the two principals did not leave the city, and were reportedly ready to confer again today.

Moses made the only statement on yesterday's meetings. He said they concerned only "preliminaries" to the contract talks. Lewis said he had nothing to add, "except that I concur."

Estimate Bus Strike Costly To Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 14.—(INS)—Mayor Charles P. Henderson today indicated he would propose a "citizens' panel" to referee the bus strike which has been estimated to cost the Youngstown businessmen about a million dollars in retail trade.

Henderson said he would advocate the impartial three-man panel if the Youngstown Municipal Railway and Coach Employees of America fail to make progress in negotiations this morning.

The 14-day strike began when the company and union were unable to agree on a new contract. The drivers asked for 26 cents hourly raise that the company countered with a seven-cent offer.

United States conciliator Horace S. Vokoun has been handling negotiations.

COMMUNISM IS STRONGLY REJECTED BY TRIESTE VOTERS

TRIESTE, June 14.—(INS)—Final results in the Trieste elections showed conclusively today that residents of the tinderbox city overwhelmingly reject Communism and favor re-union with Italy.

Pro-Italian parties captured 40 of the 60 seats on the city council, in the free territory's first democratic elections since 1922.

Of the remaining 20 seats 13 went to the Communists, five to candidates favoring Trieste's independence, and two to candidates favoring annexation by Yugoslavia.

The 106,973 votes rolled up by the pro-Italian parties out of a total of 168,108 cast was considered highly significant in this occupied seaport standing on the outer edge of the iron curtain.

Neal Is Acquitted Of Murder Charge

PITTSBURGH, June 14.—(INS)—Meredith G. Neal, 49, Seattle aircraft worker, today was acquitted of a charge that he murdered his father-in-law, 67-year-old Henry Bepler.

Neal had been charged with the fatal shooting of Bepler at his home in nearby Warrendale last Jan. 22.

Rise Of Service State Discussed By Pound

"The service state may easily shade into communism," Dean Roscoe Pound told a group of 200 in the First Methodist church Monday night.

Dean Pound spoke here under the auspices of the Economic and Business Foundation and the service clubs of the city. His subject was "The Rise of the Service State and Its Consequences."

Service, Not Welfare State
Opening his address Dean Pound differentiated between a service state and a welfare state. "Governments have always held they were set up to promote and conserve public welfare," said he.

Some excerpts from his address follow: "Administrative agencies of promoting the general welfare have come to be a necessity and have come to stay. What I deprecate is carrying to the extreme the idea of regimented cooperation for the general welfare, the exaltation of politically organized society to the position of an absolute ruler.

"The service state as it develops as a super-service state must be par excellence, a bureau state. From the very nature of administration the bureau state calls for a highly organized official hierarchy. The service state is beginning to effect our conception of the Bill of Rights in America.

"It is characteristic of the service state to make lavish promises of satisfying desires which it calls rights. The service state is a politically organized society and cannot

Exports From Marshall Plan Countries Drop

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(INS)—The commerce department reported today that April exports from the Marshall plan countries to the United States dropped 23 per cent from the preceding month.

This was characterized as "definitely cause for concern" by officials of the Economic Cooperation Administration who have intensively studying western Europe's export situation.

The department reported that the decline in Marshall plan country exports was paralleled by lower shipments from other European countries and Russia.

At the same time, the department also reported: 1. Russian exports of chrome and manganese, vital to America's steel production, dropped to the zero mark in April. These shipments had a monthly average value of $1,771,700 in 1948.

2. U. S. exports to Russia and her satellites increased by approximately 22 per cent, but imports dropped 40 per cent.

Plan Hearing For Dr. Condon If Requested

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(INS)—The House Un-American Activities committee voted unanimously today to hold a hearing for Dr. Edward W. Condon as soon as possible—if he asks for it.

The committee action was announced by Rep. Nixon (R) Calif., who presented the motion. Dr. Condon, head of the U. S. Bureau of Standards, was accused in a sub-committee report last session of being "the weakest link in our atomic security."

Nixon asserted that if the atomic scientist does not take the initiative and request a hearing, he will press for further action by the committee.

Will Be No Jobs For These Miners

PITTSBURGH, June 14.—(INS)—Five hundred and 75 miners who are taking John L. Lewis' "stabilization holiday" this week, will have no jobs to return to when the layoff ends.

The Castle Shannon Coal corporation today closed its Covered mine, and dismantling operations have been started.

A company spokesman said the mine has been virtually worked out.

One of the miners employed there said it had been necessary to pump out 100 gallons of water to get out a ton of coal.

The miners will collect their final pay and their $100 vacation pay June 24.

West Berlin Rail Strikers May End Tie-Up

Voting Today On Proposal Made To End Rail Tie-Up In Berlin

BERLIN, June 14.—(INS)—West Berlin's 18,000 rail strikers began voting on a post-blockade trade and transport problems. American, British, French and Soviet officials ended their Berlin talks on the subject yesterday without reaching agreement. Each delegation sent a separate report to the foreign ministers in Paris, instead of the unified agreement hoped for.

Settlement of the strike may also revive hopes of successful Four Power talks on post-blockade trade and transport problems. American, British, French and Soviet officials ended their Berlin talks on the subject yesterday without reaching agreement. Each delegation sent a separate report to the foreign ministers in Paris, instead of the unified agreement hoped for.

Officials of the anti-Communist UGO Union, said that under union rules unless 75 per cent of the workers reject the plan, the strike will end. The officials regard this as unlikely.

Plane With Seven Aboard Is Missing

Plane Presumed Down On California Coast; Heavy Fog Cause Of Mishap

LOS ANGELES, June 14.—(INS)—The Navy announced today that a plane with four officers and three enlisted men of the Naval Reserve aboard is missing and presumed down.

A spokesman for the Eleventh Naval District in Los Angeles said the ship, a twin-engine B4d from Memphis, Tenn., took off from Moffett field near San Francisco at 6:32 p.m. PST yesterday with a seven-hour fuel supply and could not have remained aloft beyond 1:32 o'clock this morning.

The plane originally was bound for Burbank, Calif., and was last heard from at 8:45 p.m. over Clover Field in Santa Monica, Calif.

The spokesman said that the ship was in radio contact with the control tower at Clover Field at that time. The pilot reported that he could not locate the landing strip because of a heavy fog.

"BOUNCING BABY"

CHICAGO, June 14.—(INS)—Mary Lou Van Dorn, 15-months, of Chicago was described by doctors today as a genuine "bouncing baby."

The little girl plunged five stories from a porch to a dirt alley last night and apparently escaped injury. She was examined at Women and Children's hospital by Dr. Sidney Goldman, who said no bones appeared broken and Mary Lou had control of her limbs.

She will be x-rayed to make sure she suffered no internal injuries.

Report Plan Is Considered By Coal Industry

No Details Given Out But Proposal Is Being Discussed In Report

MOSES SAID TO BE SLATED FOR PLACE

By ALLAN J. FUNCH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Southern coal operators are indignant today over plans for appointment of a "czar" to control and allocate some 200 million tons of soft coal production annually.

A spokesman asserted that the Southern Producers will fight the plan "to the last ditch." He indicated that the Southerners might go to court if the plan is adopted.

Reported Plan
The plan reportedly was worked out by United Mine Workers' President John L. Lewis and representatives of the Northern Coal Producers.

Harry M. Moses, president of the H. C. Frick Coal Co., a U. S. Steel subsidiary, is said to be in line for the job as coal industry coordinator at a salary of between $75,000 and $100,000 a year.

The new organization set up under the "czar" would have a double purpose:

1. To negotiate contracts with the United Mine Workers.

2. To allocate soft coal production evenly among its members so that there will be work for all, even in hard times.

Lewis and Moses talked together in Philadelphia yesterday for almost four hours.

Discuss Coal "Czar"
Ostensibly, the pair were discussing a new contract for the "big steel" company-owned bituminous pits. It was believed, however, that Lewis and Moses also went into details of the plan for a coal "czar" before the talks abruptly terminated for a 10-day period.

It was indicated that the plan would either come to fruition in the next ten days, or be dropped entirely.

Organizers of the program hope to form a combine which would handle collective bargaining for bituminous coal producers in several northern states.

The organizers hope to embrace approximately 200 million tons of coal output a year.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—(INS)—John L. Lewis opened another front today.

The picture above, as you probably see, shows the rain pelted down in a stream, and it's not a mistake, on the printer, ye ken, and it isn't a myth or a dream. I'm only suggesting, and mildly, of course, that rain would be just what we need to clean out the air and freshen the days and take care of meadows and seed. It's just a suggestion, a mild one, I'd say, and I think it was mentioned before that some rain would be handy for various things, and the weather is just eighty-four.

Criminal Court To Be Short One

Pleas Have Reduced Number Of Cases — Trial List May Be Down To Four Or Five

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

June term of criminal court which opened this morning in the court house will probably be a short one.
Due to the number of pleas entered in cases brought, the list is down to about five with the possibilities that it may be as low as three. This probably indicates no criminal court next week.
Two of the cases listed are for morals offenses and it is said will be fought bitterly in court.

CARE OF OUR BOULEVARDS

There are very few cities as kind to their young people as New Castle. They not only furnish them places to play ball, but they keep up, at quite an expense, boulevards for playgrounds for youngsters.

It takes several men, as well as a City Forester, to keep the grass growing on these parks, as well as take care of the beautiful shrubbery, only to have the grass tramped out and the shrubbery destroyed, for a place for youngsters to play ball, as well as annoy everybody in the neighborhood, with the noise, while doing so.

not, as could Baron Munchausen, pull itself up by its own long whiskers.

"Must Be Bureaucratic"

"A service state must be bureaucratic. Bureaus are characteristically zealous to get everything in reach under their control."

"Huge bureaus of graduates of medical schools, brought up to seek public office, and organized in the civil service as employees of the service state can be no effective substitute for a profession."

"Ultimately it will be said, as political organizations reach maturity, all public services of every sort are to be exclusive governmental functions to be exercised by government bureaus."

Edward M. Flaherty of the Johnson Bronze company was the chairman of the public meeting. At the dinner meeting preceding the public meeting, Henry Broad, president of the Lions club, was the chairman. Leonard W. Kisthart, local bassist, sang, accompanied by Arnel W. Branstetter.

blocks were established by state police.

Near Portersville, on the Perry highway, a state police car, followed the stolen car, then moved up alongside, and on the left of the car.

In some manner, the thief left the stolen car, on the right side. The stolen car, being operatorless, plunged against an embankment.

The state police later apparently got sight of the thief and they fired several shots at him, and wounded or not, he fled into the wooded area, they report.

BUTLER, Pa., June 14.—(INS)—A Munhall, Pa. man was held at State Police Barracks in Butler today for questioning in connection with the theft of a new car from the vice-president of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company.

State Police identified the man as John S. Koval, about 28, whose torn clothing and scratch marks aroused the suspicion of Lt. Singleton Shaeffer of the Butler barracks.

other front in his contract negotiations today by calling upon anthracite operators to begin talks with the United Mine Workers Union.

Lewis, already bargaining with two soft coal groups, requested the anthracite operators committee to start bargaining sessions for 78,000 hard coal miners on June 24.

The UMW chieftain did not suggest a specific site for the meeting. Talks are being held today in Bluefield, W. Va., with Southern bituminous producers.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(INS)—John L. Lewis today terminated the contract with northern and western soft coal operators as of June 30 and invited them to a bargaining conference to draft a new agreement.

The notice does not affect the Southern Coal Producers Association, representing about one-third of total national production, with whom current negotiations are under way at Bluefield, W. Va. It also had no relation to so-called "captive" mines operated by the U. S. Steel Corporation. Lewis himself is bargaining with steel officials at Philadelphia.

In a statement issued by the Washington headquarters the mine leaders explained that the action included "all mines west of the Mississippi river."

ciliatory attitude. He reportedly indicated Russia's willingness drop Yugoslavia's claim on Austrian territory and showed a readiness to ease Russia's 150 million dollar reparations demand on Austria.

Should the Big Four agree in principle to draft a peace treaty, their deputies will be instructed to draw up a pact for submission to the next ministers conference.

However, because of the encouraging nature of the talks, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin has postponed for one day his plans to fly to Luxembourg on Thursday.

It was reported that the Luxembourg meeting of the Western Union Nations, scheduled for this weekend, might be postponed if Big Four agreement over the weekend appears likely.

The west is still cautiously hopeful that the Paris conference will produce concrete achievement in the form of an agreement on Berlin and a plan for increased trade between east and west Germany.

It was this hope that led the western Big Three to submit to Vishinsky at a secret meeting Sunday night, their plan to have the conference end on a "face-saving" note, with some actual achievements on record.

Election Boards' Wage Rates Set

Commissioners Increase Rates For Election Board Officials And Clerks

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Acting under the authority of a recent act the county commissioners on Monday established new pay rates for election boards and clerks.

Under the new scale, a judge of elections and the inspectors will get $8 for the first 100 ballots tabulated and $2 per hundred for each additional hundred or fraction thereof.

Clerks will get $7 per day for the first 100 ballots and $2 for each additional 100 or fraction thereof. Constables will receive the same rate they have been getting, $6 per day.

Judges of elections and minority inspectors returning the tabulated ballots to the court house will each get $3.50 for this service and the person furnishing the car to return the ballots will get 10 cents per circular mile, which means ten cents per mile each way.

Under the new rates a judge of elections who returns the ballots in his own car will get a fair compensation if his precinct has a vote of any size.

For example a judge of elections in Enon Valley, in an election where 405 votes were cast would get $14 for services at the polls.

CRIMINAL COURT OPENS

June term of criminal court opened Monday morning with Eugene Henry Statti of the Ellwood City district the first defendant.

Four charges are laid against him, three immorality charges and a charge of robbery. His case is being heard in court room number one before Judge W. Walter Braham.

TO MEET WITH ASSESSORS

All county assessors will meet with the county commissioners in the court house Monday night, June 20, at 8:30 EDT.

The commissioners are interested in equalizing the county assessments and an attempt will be made to get some quality in them in this county. A recent table released by the State Tax Equalization Board shows that assessments in this county run from less than 20 per cent of the market value of property to about 41 per cent.

EVEN STEVEN

The special registration day at Mount Jackson resulted in a split. The Republicans registered four and the Democrats four.

WEATHERMAN OVERRULES COURT

Judge W. Walter Braham was overruled Monday morning in court by the weatherman. For a number of years there has been a rule that jurors were expected to wear their coats in the jury box. Monday morning the temperature was up and Judge Braham said it would be all right with the court if the male jurors removed their coats. Several of them did.

Rotary Members See How War Was Won In Pacific

Army Film Depicts Winning Of Campaign Against Japs In Late War

Of interest to Rotary club members because of the fact that Past President Had Hadsell has left for an advisory post in assisting to develop Japanese industry, the winning of the war against Japan was shown in films taken during the late war by the U. S. Army Signal Corps.

The pictures were secured through the U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting office and were shown by M. Sgt. Charles P. Walsh, local army recruiter.

The film showed the start of the campaign from Australia and pictured its progress through the Pacific Islands to the retaking of the Philippines, the capture of Okinawa and the final surrender.

The title of the film was "Ap- pointment in Tokyo."

Consumption Of Meat To Increase

Meat Consumption To Increase Two Pounds Per Person During Next Six Months

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(INS)—The agriculture department today expects meat consumption to increase about two pounds per person during the next six months.

The department estimated that meat eating since Jan. 1 has dropped about one pound per capita below the same period in 1948.

But it forecast a rise over last year of approximately one pound during the next six months and figured the 1949 total at 146.4 pounds, about the same as 1948.

An agriculture report also declared that last summer's meat shortage is "not likely to be repeated this year" and predicted that the total meat supply for 1949 will exceed last year's level.

In fact, the report said meat production in the second half of 1949 is expected to exceed last year's level by an even larger percentage than the first half.

The department forecast that prices of hogs and better grades of cattle "may weaken somewhat" before rising during midsummer in accordance with seasonal trends.

Overall meat prices for the whole of 1949 are expected to be generally lower than last year.

Because of the population increase, per capita meat consumption of about 146 pounds this year actually will mean that the total amount of meat eaten is greater than last year.

Boy Scouts Lower Age Requirements

Change Name Of Senior Scouting To Explorers: Younger Boys May Join Sept. 1

In an unprecedented move the Boy Scouts of America has lowered the entrance age for its three programs of Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Senior Scouting, effective next September 1.

In announcing the far-reaching change authorized by the National Executive Board of the organization, Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief scout executive, said the decision was reached after a three years' exhaustive study during which opinions were obtained from experienced leaders as well as parents.

After September 1, boys may become Cub Scouts at eight years of age instead of nine; Boy Scouts at eleven instead of twelve and Explorers at fourteen instead of fifteen years of age.

The program known as Senior Scouting, Dr. Schuck announced, now becomes "Exploring" with its scope broad enough to include land, sea and air activities as well as life exploration. Units specializing in seamanship or in aviation will be known as Explorer Ships or Explorer Squadrons, respectively.

Wife—But dear, if...

Husband—When prices get exorbitant it's up to people to be sensible and boycott the stuff. I like to eat as well as anybody else, but I don't wanna be robbed.

CHOKERS

Women and men both used to wear chokers. Men had stiff linen collars about three inches high. Girls wore high collars with whalebone or something in them, to make them stay up straight.

They were, mighty uncomfortable but awfully stylish. So what. There was another kind of choker too. Diphtheria choked the children. Rich or poor, high or low, black or white, all were threatened by this terrible disease. Doctors were helpless against this monster which grasped children by the throat and choked them to death.

Both kinds of chokers have passed out. Diphtheria does not cause the misery that it once did. People have learned how to protect themselves.

Although diphtheria has been conquered, the war is not over. A little carelessness would bring it back.

WAR AND DIPLOMACY

Now that the Soviet blockade of Berlin is about over for the time being, the entire world outside the Iron Curtain is paying deserved tribute to the wonderful work of the young American fliers who kept the city supplied for so many months, when all other access to the city from the Western occupation zones had been cut off by the Russians.

The Berliners greeted the ending of the blockade with joy and satisfaction but when the names of fifty young American fliers who lost their lives in the Berlin airlift were read in solemn tones the throng greeted the reading silently with bowed, uncovered heads. But it was not only in Berlin but in every civilized city in the world that the achievements of these brave young fliers were recognized.

It is not to be forgotten that for nearly a year these brave young fliers by the hundred droned across the continent carrying food, clothing, coal and other supplies to people for whose custody we were responsible. The airlift was of course expensive, but the monetary loss could in no way compare with the loss of these fifty young American fliers.

So the breaking of the Berlin blockade by air turned out to be a glorious achievement for American air forces, matching the deeds which our military, naval and air forces had performed in the great war both in the European and the Oriental zones.

It is a pity that, and it was the case too, during and after the First World War, the achievements of our diplomats and the heroism and efficiency of our young men. Had this not been the case there would have been no need of an airlift to break the blockade of Berlin. For it was the blundering of our diplomats during and after the war which gave Russia a stranglehold on all of Berlin, including the portions occupied by the Western Powers.

What was true of Russian appeasement in Europe was true of Russian appeasement in China. It is hardly necessary to go into details. By looking at current war maps we can see that the Reds, under Russian tutelage, and armed in part with weapons we permitted them to take, are now occupying the entire northern part of China and are steadily driving southward. Once the entire country is occupied our position in Korea will become untenable. Americans know how to fight but too many of us still seem to be tyros when it comes to diplomacy.

FIRE IN THE FORESTS

Summer and fall constitute two of the most serious fire periods in this country. Forests and fields dry out, awaiting only the touch of a spark to burst into flame. Tourists throng the highways. Thousands of campers go into the woods. Commercial camps and vacation spots of all kinds run at capacity.

Every year sees the destruction of magnificent forests, accompanied by a tragic toll of wildlife. Some forest fires do occur spontaneously, from lightning or other natural causes. But a far greater number can be attributed to human carelessness and ignorance. The motorist who throws burning cigarette butts and matches from his car, and the camper who leaves a fire without dousing it with water and burying it with earth until every spark is out and every ember is cold, are two of the worst offenders. The whole nation is the poorer because of them.

A plain duty confronts everyone who goes into the outdoors for any reason. It is to protect a heritage which, once destroyed, may take centuries to replace. The various public and private bodies which deal with fire are doing a fine job. They are making available to all simple, easy rules for fire safety. They maintain patrols and fire fighting organizations. But they can do little without public cooperation. A forest fire can spread with incredible swiftness, and be completely beyond control in a matter of minutes under certain conditions.

Make the most of the woods—and save them for the future.

PURGE IN RUSSIA

In spite of the efforts of the Soviet government to keep the world in the dark on what goes on in Russia, there is evidence available indicating a political purge is taking place in the Soviet Union.

At least 300,000 members of the Communist party have been expelled, including several who were high in the councils of the party. Many have just dropped out of sight, presumably liquidated or sent into exile. This is particularly true of those in charge of the Communist Youth League.

The Russian people are becoming restless under the Communist yoke. Voice of America broadcasts are having an effect upon the people's morale. To offset this Moscow is increasing its propaganda, distributing millions of circulars and pamphlets in which conditions in the United States are pictured as approaching revolution.

Soviet citizens who claim to have visited America report in a magazine article that wretched poverty is the rule here, and many are forced to eat from garbage cans. This is merely a mild sample of the lies deliberately designed to misinform the Russian people.

Full significance of the present purge cannot be understood at this time. But there is proof that a wholesale shakeup is taking place, proof that all is not going well for the Soviet regime. Forced labor camps and prisons are increasing. The day of another Russian revolution cannot be delayed indefinitely.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Another confession of Soviet failure in basic occupation policies is seen today in Russia's almost frantic haste to conclude a peace treaty with Germany and withdraw her armed forces.

Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky's Big Four proposal that a treaty be drafted within three months and occupation troops pulled out a year after its signing did not take the western powers by surprise.

The immediate assumption is that the Kremlin wants United States, British and French troops to leave in order that its skilled agents and its vast underground can proceed with the task of Communizing western Germany.

Undoubtedly a factor. But perhaps more important still is the tacit admission that collectivization of eastern Germany has not come up to expectations either because of lack of cooperation or inability of east German farmers to produce sufficient food from their played-out and bomb-ravaged soil.

This would mean that the Soviet occupation army, numbering perhaps a quarter of a million men, no longer is able to live off the land and is draining supplies from inside Russia itself—a situation which the Soviet never have been inclined to tolerate.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson hinted at Russian confusion or disapproval when Vishinsky first suggested the hurried treaty. He pointed out that when his predecessor, James F. Byrnes, in a speech at Stuttgart in 1946, proposed a formula for a quick German solution, the then Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov made clear that the Soviet Union desired a long occupation.

Days Of Agitation. Those were the days of intense agitation in the United States to get American troops home from Germany and slash occupational costs to the bone.

The Russians opposed this firmly and for a variety of reasons. First, 250,000 soldiers of the Red Army were billeted comfortably and eating well on German soil with no cost whatever to the home economy.

Second, the Russians were carting out vast quantities of German machinery and industrial equipment up to and including whole factories in the form of war reparations.

Third, they were making great headway politically and indoctrinating at least an appreciable number of eastern Germans with the Communist doctrine.

All that was too valuable to give away in a twinkling by means of a rapidly-signed peace treaty.

Russia Not Withdrawing. In connection with the theory that the locusts have eaten the ground bare, there is no disposition whatever on Russia's part to withdraw her forces from satellite

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

As soon as I get to it I am going to make a most important experiment.

I am going to mix the juice of a skunk with some "Flanelle No. 5" or "Toujours l'Odeur" and see what it will do.

I shall inject the perfume into the skirt-glamme of skunks and let living animals wear it.

If the experiment works I may start a new business.

Grand idea, isn't it?

I shall let you know, of course, how my tests come out. If they are successful, this very newspaper will carry an advertisement of mine, offering my new invention for sale to all cosmetically inclined ladies.

Do you know how I got the idea?

From a Memorial Day orator a couple of weeks ago.

I shall not mention his name or place.

I might be sued for a million dollars worth of libel and I don't like libel suits.

But name and place don't matter, anyway. It might have happened anywhere.

This orator, a minor politician, is a notorious skunk. Nobody with a reach of his smell has a good word for him.

But he is quite an influential local figure, so he was the main speaker at his community's Memorial Day celebration.

You should have heard the sweet-scented oratory of his. He spoke of this glorious country of ours, of which he has not done a darn thing.

He waved his arms, reaching in a circle from the rock-bound coast of Maine to the sun-kissed shores of California.

He drooled over the brave soldiers who had died for you and me and who, by their death, were no longer able to vote for him.

When the speech ended there was some polite applause.

There were cheers by his henchmen and sneers by those whom he had done good.

The day after Memorial Day he went back to his job of helping his country to help him.

Don't misunderstand me, please. I have nothing against the man personally. He doesn't live anywhere near me and he never did me out of a nickel.

I just happened to pass by and had some of the natives tell me about him.

All of us know about people who talk so sweetly, and by their enticing personality, make us fall for their hypocrisy.

We newspaper folks get so much of that. They fawn on us as if we were the greatest geniuses in the world. And all the time we know that they are not after our friendship at all but only after the publicity we might give them.

But under all the sweetness the smell of the skunk is distinctly discernible.

lite nations such as Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria.

These countries escaped much of the material ravages of war. The United States Air Force did a very creditable job of crippling Romania's Ploesti oil fields. But there was no other widespread bombardment and these countries always rich agriculturally, are producing more than enough to feed their own populations and Soviet armies as well.

Experiences of the Soviet Union itself prove that collectivization of farms cannot be carried out except by use of force.

The Bolsheviks could afford to be merciless on their own home grounds in disposing of the middle-class farmers known as "Kulaks" who stood in the way of this vast overall scheme of farm collectivization.

They may have instituted concentration camps in Germany, but because of world opinion they could hardly use such drastic methods against the Reich although some obstructionists may have been disposed of as presumed war criminals. The present situation, however, makes it amply clear that the Russian occupation of Germany has not proved the success that Marshal Stalin hoped for.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

FUN FOR ALL THE FAMILY

Summer is a good time for all the family to go together frequently for a picnic lunch or dinner outdoors. Something about such experiences help knit together family ties, especially when the family ranges in age from the grandparents down to a tot, with several children in between.

Preparing and assembling the food and equipment at home and preparing and serving it at the camping place afford wholesome fun and responsibility for the children. It's an opportunity for parents to demonstrate to get permission from the owner in case they wish to dine on private property, and to leave no litter whether on private property or in a public park. If one of the children is a Boy Scout or Girl Scout the adults of the group will be rebuked if they should grow lax in such matters.

Outdoor Meals

There are many homes in villages or other outlying places which have ideal spots for outdoor meals right near the house. The building of an outdoor grill can contribute to outside family picnics and parties to which other children are invited for good times.

Summer is also a good time for family classes, including grandparents and grandchildren and other relatives coming from wide areas. It's a good way for all the cousins to get together and know one another better. Through many jealousies may then be revealed, the inter-family associations have far-reaching and wholesome contribution to family permanence and solidarity.

Sunday schools, churches, service clubs, fraternal organizations, labor unions and various other organizations have summer picnics to which whole families come. Any assembly that promotes family unity is to be commended.

Child's Safety

But some dangers face children when they go on picnics. Frequently the picnic is held near a river, lake, beach or swimming pool. Be sure there are life guards. Even then you should check personally on such matters and be vigilant of your own child's safety.

At such times you will sense the great practical advantage of having trained your own child not only to obey basic safety rules but also your commands when for safety's sake you are forced to do so.

Safety is furthered at these picnics by organized games for the children at the several age levels. They make more good times for the children and less worry for the parents. At these picnics many a timid tot or older child may gain just the kind of socializing fun he most needs for his best personality development. "Off Again, On Again,—"

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Textbook Probe Indicated

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Prodigious efforts for inactivity, the House Un-American Activities Committee seems to have decided to start on a new trail. That is as good an explanation as any for the remarkable step just taken by the committee.

A letter has gone out signed by the chairman, Representative John S. Wood of Georgia, to nearly every college and university in the country and to every public school system. It requests lists of textbooks now being used, along with the authors of the texts.

This first came to light when the heads of several institutions telephoned to Washington to try to find out what was behind the demand. The letters went to large privately endowed institutions such as Harvard, Wellesley, and Vassar, as well as to state tax-supported schools.

The smaller institutions and the high school and grade school systems were asked for lists of all the texts used. To the larger institutions the request was somewhat narrowed down, as the letter indicates.

Leads Up To Request. What led up to this request is revealing of the fear and suspicion that today border on hysteria. It is the climax of what seems to me to be a concerted drive to put curbs on the right of free inquiry.

For some years the Un-American Activities committee has been under pressure to investigate American education to determine whether "subversive" doctrines are being taught in the nation's schools. For the most part, the pressure has come from those who tend to regard as "subversive" any un-American request, the volume of material coming in to the committee is likely to be large. That the present staff could analyze it intelligently is very doubtful. In about 30 states a board approves the textbooks for all public schools, but in the other states the choice is made by counties or local school boards.

What immediately precipitated the committee's letter was a petition from the national council of the Sons of the American Revolution. The demand for an investigation of the nation's textbooks was approved by the sons at their last national convention. The sons, even more nervous in their reaction to anything faintly "subversive" than the Daughters of the American Revolution, have about 20,000 members.

Plays Down Letter. Chairman Wood plays down the letter. He says it is merely a staff request, and the committee will decide what to do about the nation's textbooks when they see what the staff turns up in the preliminary inquiry.

In my opinion, it is an ominous move. Even if the committee decides not to determine what is American and what is un-American in the school books, it will further increase the fear and doubt that have a baleful effect on the morale of the American people.

If I were a member of Congress, I would hesitate a long time before I voted for Federal aid for education. Even though I believe such assistance necessary, I would be fearful of the long arm of the Federal government thrust out to police all teaching. The strange thing is that those who oppose aid to education are also those who want Uncle Sam to become snooper and policeman on the thought-control beat.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

(By International News Service)

Not many French-type bathing suits will be seen on our beaches this summer . . . town fathers and town mothers both object.

French girls can be excused for adopting the style . . . They have to do the best they can with the materials and men available.

But here the feeling is that a grown girl may be excused a slip into baby talk . . . but that's all.

There are medical as well as reasons of modesty involved . . . Sunburn and eyestrain can both be painful.

Congress may not get away to the country and beaches until August . . . Nobody cares what kind of sun suits have been ordered.

But it would be kind of cute to see some of the boys who make the long speeches decked out in their briefs.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Today is Flag Day . . . everyone should have displayed the Red, White and Blue . . . probably the only ones who really celebrated or took particular notion of the day (outside of the flag day committee) were bankers . . . This as you know now, was a banking holiday . . . there's another big day coming up but unfortunately for the bankers this holiday falls on a Sunday . . . therefore they are unable to properly observe it.

June 19th . . . that's next Sunday . . . will be and has been known throughout the land as FATHER'S DAY . . . in fact it is the 40th anniversary of celebration. In 1910 Mrs. Bruce Dodd inspired the idea and today it's one of the country's most beloved holidays.

This year's program is dedicated to building a strong America by fostering a closer father-child relationship . . . using as its theme "Today's Children Are Tomorrow's America . . . Remember Father, Builder of Our Nation's Future."

Let's read this . . . A Father's Ten Tenets for Building a Strong America.

1. A wise father develops in his home a deep and genuine appreciation of our traditions and institutions.

2. A wise father makes his child feel secure.

3. He teaches his child that intolerance and bigotry have no place in American life.

4. He develops a respect for the character and accomplishments of other peoples.

5. He shares his child's activities.

6. He sees to it that he and his family take an active part in community life.

7. He is always available to help solve youthful problems.

8. He trains his child for leadership.

9. He strives to be the man his child thinks he is.

10. He teaches his child that our great material blessings are meaningless without developing spiritual values.

It's All Different Now

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

There was a time when I would gladly have sworn that I would never go back in the army until the Russians had not only occupied my living room, but were coming upstairs to take possession of the second floor.

It seemed to me, when I was handed my discharge papers at Camp Blanding, Florida, that I would almost be willing to change my name to Benedict Arnold McLemore to keep from ever wearing that Uncle Sam outfit. When I was in the army it was real rough. The kindest non-com or officer I met could have doubled for a gorilla with a toothache. I was fussed at from the moment I got in until the moment I got out. No one ever laid a kindly hand on my patriotic forehead, no one ever so much as said to me, "Henry, you're a peach of a little soldier."

"Soldier, Get Braver"

Even when I was braver than Sergeant York, there was always some persimmon-faced cuss to yell at me and say, "Soldier, get braver". What I am trying to tell you is that when I was in the army, I had as uncomfortable a time as a soap bubble in a meat chopper.

But the army, she has changed. I thought the deep violet pools which serve as my eyes would pop right out of my handsome face when I read in the New York newspapers a few days ago what they are now doing for soldiers. Cross my heart and hope to die, if they aren't bringing soldiers into New York from nearby camps and giving them a week's furlough with extra pay. The four soldiers I read about were given a send-off by a three-star general, driven into New York in a staff car, and told to have one week of solid fun.

"Cut loose," they were told, "and don't dare show up at your camp until you have seen the sights of the city."

Want To Join This

That's the kind of army I want to join. If that's the way they're treating soldiers now, I'll stitch up my own little suit, bring my own little bugle, and pay half my wages. Man, I remember when I used to have to drop to my knees like Al Jolson having a fit and beg and plead for half an hour in order to get a fifteen-minute furlough. How well do I remember those days when I'd go into the orderly room at Camp Wheeler and ask for a pass to get into Macon, Georgia.

The sergeant, lieutenant or captain always asked me the same question, "Why do you want to go into Macon?"

"Just to see some bright lights, sir," I always answered, standing at what I considered attention, but which I've learned is generally considered by West Pointers to be "at ease". They nearly always told me something like this:

"You go right over to the mess hall, soldier, and back in the kitchen you'll see some of the brightest lights you ever saw in your life. If it's bright lights you want, the mess sergeant will show you all you'll ever want to see."

Different Now

As for ever meeting a general, I'd been in the army two years before I ever knew such a thing existed. I'm telling you the truth, I'd been in the army a full year before I knew there was any rank higher than corporal. I used to stretch out in my bunk and dream of the day when I would be able to call a corporal by his first name. Now, generals send soldiers off with a pat on the back, a friendly smile, and a cheerful admonition to paint the town red. The only thing a general ever gave me was a court-martial and a warning that if I didn't straighten up, I'd get a ten-year holiday in Leavenworth.

If I didn't look so silly in an overseas cap, I would go right now to the nearest recruiting office and join what I'm quite sure is becoming the very finest country club in America. Certainly, it's the only country club that pays you to join.

Wife (shyly)—What'll we order? Husband—Why not settle for a good steak?

Wife—But it's Four Dollars, and not on the regular dinner either. A baked potato with it costs forty-five cents.

Husband (swankily)—Who cares? A good dinner is a good dinner. Have a shrimp cocktail or something.

Wife—Did you notice the price? It's One dollar and twenty cents. Husband—Not so loud. You wanna have people think we're pikers? Go ahead and get one. And how about a cocktail?

Wife—I hear they're eighty-five cents each here.

Wife—Well, we had steak once, and . . . Husband—With meat so high, who has to have steak?

"Assignment; America"

(Distributed By International News Service)

RIVERDALE, N. Y., June 14.—"Whatever became of Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek?" I mused the other day, for want of something better to muse. Nothing might have come of this musing had I not been foolish enough to muse out loud in front of an editor, a type man who believes in his staff living dangerously.

"Find out!" snapped this worthy. So I am now prepared to report that while Communism sweeps over her native land, the woman who was once called the Joan D'Arc of China lives in voluntary exile on a cloistered country estate only ten miles from Times Square. Mme. Chiang dropped out of the headlines and out of sight months ago after her dramatic flight to Washington, D. C., to ask aid for her husband's faltering regime.

The still beautiful Mei-Ling Soong Chiang, who failed so ignominiously in that mission, is now living in retirement in Riverdale, an extraordinary beautiful sub of large estates in an emerald setting high above the Hudson river.

Until a week or ten days ago, not even her nearest neighbors, who include Maestro Arturo Toscanini, knew that Mme. Chiang was once more living in their midst in the big stone, stucco and timbered tudor mansion leased five years ago by her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Kung.

When Mme. Chiang made the Riverdale estate her home when she was in America in 1944-45 for prolonged medical treatment, the house with its surrounding acre and a half of lushly planted grounds was vigilantly guarded the clock around by secret service men assigned to the task by the United States government.

Not Guarded Now

Nothing is more indicative of the change in China's and in Mme. Chiang's situation now, four years later, than the fact that not a single guard of any nature patrols the house on an avenue named Independence.

Four years ago, Mme. Chiang was the wife of a war-time ally who was still head of a fairly cohesive state. Today, the Mississin is her in purely private capacity, and Uncle Sam does not provide guards.

As I walked up the steep, cobble driveway today, no one stopped or questioned me. As I hesitated, not certain where the main entrance was located, an obliging servant leaned from an apartment above the big garage and called and pointed:

"That way, Miss. You come big door."

A white-coated butler opened the door and ushered me into the hallway of the 20 room house. I explained who I was and asked if I might see Mme. Chiang.

The house spread out around me, cool, serene and filled with flowers. A loose bunch of roses lay on the table next to an empty vase, as if someone had been interrupted while arranging flowers.

Murmur of Voices

There was a murmur of voices in the great drawing room beyond. Obviously, a conference was in process. A half-dozen Chinese gentlemen were alternately talking and listening to a slim woman almost hidden in a big arm chair.

One of the gentlemen, young and courteous, came into the hall, from which one could barely glimpse the great Hudson through the thick foliage of old, towering trees. He explained that Mme. Chiang was most sorry, but that she could see no one.

"She has seen no one since coming to America," he added. "She is sorry, but she has nothing to say at the moment."

"I hope Mme. Chiang is in better health than when she was here last," I said.

Health Is Excellent

The young man assured me that Madame's health is excellent.

And that is all I learned. I do not know if Mme. Chiang plans to remain here or to return to China. I found out nothing to substantiate or deny reports that a long-whispered rift between herself and the Generalissimo is permanent. I did not even find out if Madame still enjoys a game of rummy or if she has switched to canasta.

There is no doubt that Mme. Chiang is in retirement here in Riverdale. But on leaving as I counted the visitors' hats, neatly arranged on a foyer table, and heard the resumed hum of conference voices in the drawing room beyond, I felt that while Mme. Chiang may be temporarily in retirement, she is not exactly idle.

The bow and arrow was used by ancient men on every continent except Australia.

Hope For Cure Of Rare Disease

Transfusions Needed Every 35 Days To Keep Boy Alive; Many People Help

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—(INS)—Anthony and Anna Labrozzi of Philadelphia have had to search for blood donors every 35 days, since their son Charles, 7, was born. But recently a Red Cross bank lifted their burden and restored hope of keeping the youngster alive.

Young Charles is a victim of Cooley's disease, a serious anemia, of which there is no known medical cure.

Informing that transfusions were a must and that the patient sometimes "outgrows" the disease, the Labrozzi's called on neighbors, relatives—even strangers—for seven years, to acquire the precious blood.

As Charles grew older, the amount of blood necessary also mounted.

His parents persisted. Each 35th day they accompanied him to Temple university hospital where the transfusions were given.

The Labrozzi's realized, however, that people couldn't be expected to volunteer forever.

Just when their list of prospective donors was running out, a new blood bank of the southeastern chapter of the Red Cross guaranteed the youngster treatment at no charge.

No one knows if Charles will outgrow his disease, but his mom and dad are satisfied in knowing that he will get plenty of help to do it.

SAN DIEGO, Cal.—(INS)—To speed street cleaning and insure more frequent service to critical spots, San Diego street cleaners are now equipped with three-wheel motor scooters. Litter containers are attached to the scooters in the same manner as sidecars.

GROWS AND GROWS

LOS ANGELES.—(INS)—Los Angeles increased its population from 33,381 to almost 4,000,000 during the past 70 years. An estimated 10,000 persons take up permanent residence there, every month.

Growing demands for electric power in the United States will require utilities to increase their generating facilities by 75 per cent during the next year, it is estimated.

MEN PREFER WOOL FIBER FOR SUMMER CLOTHING

The preference for wool in men's suits was overwhelming in a recent survey by the Bureau of Agriculture Economics to find out how men felt about the various fibers used in their clothing.

Not including tropical wardrobes, summer suits of cotton or rayon generally have been available only within the past ten years. These men were asked if they bought and wore summer suits and if so, what fiber they preferred and why. Of the men questioned, 40 per cent owned and wore summer suits, and of this 40 per cent, nearly two-thirds preferred wool and wool mixtures.

The men questioned preferred wool because they like its look, it is comfortable, durable and wears well. The same reasons were given for the increasing use of wool in shirts, socks, robes and other garments. In the survey, the popular wool suits men sketched-lined, tropical worsted preferred were the light-weight suits. This type suit makes up between 15 and 20 per cent of all men's suits.

It is emphasized that these men felt that wool garments hold a press or crease better than other fibers. They do not wrinkle or rumple easily. Men who preferred rayon for sport shirts and extra trousers gave coolness and comfort next to the skin as the main reason for their choice.

When asked what they consider the most important thing to look for in buying summer suits and extra trousers, the men named quality, kind of material, and comfort. These men questioned in the survey represented a cross-section of men in the United States, 16 years and older.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, June 14.—(INS)—Off the celluloid cuff, Harold Lloyd confides to pals that he is planning a movie "comeback" with a flicker patterned on the format of his silent screen successes. . . . Johnny Weissmuller, who dieted away 35 pounds before flying to England for a six weeks swimming exhibition, will stage a golf tour with his wife, Allene Gates, before returning to Flickerville. . . .

So Would We
Cowboy Star Gene Autry, who knocks down $8750 weekly for that chewing gum-sponsored radio show, chaws gum constantly, even in his movie scenes. . . . Marta Toren, the latest Swedish import, carries a note book with her at all times and writes down slang phrases she hears around Hollywood as part of her "English lessons." Only trouble with that is, most of the slang phrases you hear around Hollywood are not quite cultural. . . .

Pension Plan
True Story: One of Hollywood's largest and most commercial studios has a pension plan for employees. The dough which the studio salts away each week for the works is payable at the age of 65. We overheard two employees discussing the pension plan. "It's a swell idea," said one. "Yeah," replied the other guy. "But how can you get to be 65 at this studio?" And the answer was: "Overnight!" "Only the Valiant," the classical one-act play, will be chucked on celluloid shortly with Gregory Peck playing the leading role. . . . Gene Kelly will do a formal ballet number in "On the Town." . . . Sight of the week: Jean Wallace, wearing a slinky black negligee, and Lola Albright, staging a rip-roaring and rip-nighly slugfest for a scene in "The Good Humor Man." . . .

Still Watch Shirley
Shirley Temple's parents still "watch after" her. Shirley, hubby John Agar and their baby live right next door to the Temples—and Momma Temple visits them every day. . . . Gary Cooper will make a cougar hunting safari into the wilds of Mexico this fall and during the trip will subsist for a week solely on special air force concentrated rations as an experiment. . . . Red Skelton, who has a flock of phobias, will not drive an automobile after dark. When the sun goes down he parks his car wherever he is and calls a taxi. . . .

Races To Fame
Dick Haymes' British vaudeville tour which would have paid him $12,500 a week this fall, has been abruptly cancelled. . . . Bill Holland, who copped the recent Indianapolis auto race, is getting movie offers. . . . Economic notes: Six swank Hollywood bistros have gone out of business in the past few weeks; only 41 pictures are in the process of manufacture today. . . .

Hitler's Yacht Open To Public

Floating Palace Headed For New York To Be Viewed By The Public For $1.00

NEW YORK, June 14.—(INS)—One of the personal effects of the late Adolf Hitler—a 476-foot yacht reputed to be the most opulent afloat—is headed for New York, and a one-dollar admission inspection by the public.

The luxurious vessel, "The Grille"—the word means whim—is now owned by George Arida, a British-born Middle East industrialist who bought the four million dollar craft from the British admiralty.

What Arida paid for the boat has not been disclosed, but the wealthy textile manufacturer said, "Buying The Grille was easier than purchasing a pack of rationed cigarettes at the time."

Piloting Floating Palace
Arida's 22-year old son, George Jr., is piloting the floating palace from Gibraltar to New York. It is due in Wednesday, and will be opened to the public at $1.00 admission, receipts to be turned over to a local charity.

Spokesmen for the industrialist say that after a "yacht-warming" on Thursday, Arida will "try to think of a way of using her which would have given Hitler the greatest amount of displeasure possible."

At 3,873-tons, she is more than twice the size of President Truman's yacht, The Williamsburg. The vessel—from whose decks Admiral Dönitz broadcast the news of Hitler's death—is powered by two oil-burning steam-turbine engines.

The master bedroom, once used by Der Fuehrer, is big enough to hold track meets in. It is done in pastel green. Nearby is another large bedroom—in blue, the favorite color of Eva Braun, Hitler's girl friend.

FIRST YACHT WINNER
NEW YORK.—(INS)—The first world's championship yachting race was sailed Aug. 22, 1851, around the Isle of Wight and was won by the New York Yacht Club's entry, the America. . . .

The first American agricultural college is thought to have been Gardner's academy, founded in Maine in 1823.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

The Chicago Loop parking ban led to a famous practical joke whose aftermath was by far the funniest part of the story. A veteran bookman was tendered a dinner to celebrate his twenty-fifth anniversary with one firm. At the climax of the evening, he was presented with a special pass, signed by Chicago's mayor, giving him the unique privilege of parking his car as long as he liked anywhere in the Loop.

Tears of gratitude came into the bookman's eyes. He had no idea that the pass was a complete fake. His "pals" sat back to await the hullabaloo when he tried to use it for the first time.

Then came the payoff. The Chicago police, it developed, were just as convinced by the pass as the man who flashed it! He used it blissfully for at least three solid years, and, for all I know, it is still seeing service. Not one copper ever questioned its validity. The bookman took special pleasure in demonstrating its magic powers whenever one of his would-be tormentors was riding with him in the car.

Peace At Last From PERSISTENT ITCH!

No wonder thousands teased by itchy torment bleed the day they changed to Resinol. Here's quick action from first moment—a blissful sense of peace that lasts and lasts, thanks to 6 active soothing agents in a liniment that stays on. NEW YORK, June 14.—Women should bare their shoulders and poke out their pockets when they go dancing.

New York designers are concentrating today on the "jaunty look" in evening gowns, with pockets as the chief trimming. The more formal the gown, the bigger the pockets. And the bigger the pockets, the bigger the price.

Other accents to the new casual look in formal include bandanas wrapped about the bustline; plaid huggies tucked in belts; and the rugged fabrics, from denim to worsteds.

Despite the virile outdoorsy look of the new nightwear, shoulders are still exposed—to prove it's a woman.

ERIE MAN AIDS SUFFERERS FROM FOOT TROUBLES

Roy F. McClenathan developed a process in 1934 for making Casts to be used in regular shoes enabling people suffering from foot troubles to walk straight and normal.

Mr. McClenathan has made casts for many persons from all sections of the country—from a baby 14 months old, born with club feet, to an 80-year-old doctor, victim of a stroke, who was able to walk again for five years until his death.

Word of this work has gradually spread over the nation bringing people to his fully equipped establishment developed to serve foot sufferers. Many doctors and nurses recommend his work to patients and friends.

Wearing these casts has proven to be a benefit to people with weak feet, flat feet, club feet, broken feet, spur heels and callouses. They have been beneficial to people with leg or foot deformities, nervous breakdown, diabetes, varicose veins, rheumatism, arthritis, infantile paralysis, and foot numbness.

Mr. McClenathan has invented special equipment to tailor shoes to fit anyone. He also makes a convalescent walker to aid the sick, injured and infirm.

Council Acts To Bar Exhibitions

City council at a meeting held Monday in city hall voted unanimously to prohibit any circus, or carnival, from showing on West Clayton street grounds.

Their action followed presentation of a petition, signed voluminously, which opposed circus on the grounds.

The signers pointed out that due to heavy traffic, the narrow width of the street, and parking of autos on lawns, it would be impossible for fire equipment to reach the scene of a possible conflagration.

State Capitol Duff To Attend Colorado Session

Pennsylvania Governor To Go To Pow Wow Of Governors In U. S.

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, June 14.—(INS)—Governor Duff is slated to attend the governor's conference at Colorado Springs, Colo., this month and it is expected he will spark some political speculation as a result of his stand against Governor Thomas E. Dewey during the Republican national convention a year ago. . . . Duff and Dewey are certain to cross trails sometime during the meeting. . . . Some Republicans predict Duff will tip his hand sometime during the meeting whether he plans to seek the U. S. senatorial post now held by Democrat Francis E. Myers, of Philadelphia. . . . Myers is expected to go after another term in the November elections next year.

Robert C. McCormick, whom Governor Duff calls Pennsylvania's super-press agent, has done much to smooth relations between the press and the chief executive. . . . In addition, he has put some semblance of order in the state's publicity setup but so far there has been no hint of censorship. . . . Newsmen have promised McCormick that if such a day ever comes, he'll wish he was back in Omaha, Neb., where he toiled for the Union Pacific railroad on a farm outfit from Steve Hannigan's whoop-it-up publicity chain gang. . . . McCormick has established friendly relations in the state capital newsroom. . . . He was invited to participate in a newsroom athletic tournament, the only publicity man on capitol hill to be tapped, and it developed that Mr. McCormick is strictly a rookie who would starve if he had to live on his earnings as an athlete. . . .

The state land office, a treasury of old commonwealth records, has turned up a kitchen bill of sale for 1799 listing equipment which would make the modern housewife blanch. . . . It detailed a jack, spit and andirons, six iron pots, a shovel and tongs, a "tin kitchen" (purpose not stated), tea and copper "kittles," coffee and pepper mills, tubs, tin and crockery ware.

The official stenographers who record every word and action of the general assembly have started putting together the last weeks of the 1949 session in the House and Senate. . . . The official record of the 1949 meeting is expected to be ready by mid summer. . . . There will not be a repetition of events after the 1947 session which stalled issuance of the record until a few months before lawmakers assembled for the 1949 meeting. . . . Many assembly employees, paid on a per diem basis, drew salaries throughout the period.

Camp East Brook is undergoing spring improvement time.

Several hundred dollars of improvements will make the camp a better place for future campers. Four new showers have been added, along with the lavatory and shower room. The roof has been repaired and new kitchen sinks have been installed. New mattresses have been purchased for the entire camp.

A new diving board will afford swimmers to "show their stuff." In addition, there will be new balls and bats, archery equipment, croquet set, horseshoes, two badminton courts and many other games. The porches and chairs were given a new coat of bright paint. The cooks are to return early to see that everything is in order and the same good food will be enjoyed.

HOW TO TIP
"Now that vacation time has rolled around again, how about passing along a few tips on tipping?"
Answer: Trainmen and conductors expect no tips. The parlor car porter should be tipped 25c a day. The minimum tip to a sleeping-car porter for overnight passengers is 25c to 50c. If paying for one person only, 50c a day during a long journey. Station porters now have a standard charge for carrying luggage. The dining car waiter should be tipped 25c for any meal costing less than $2.50; over that cost, 10 per cent. The dining-car head waiter expects no tip unless asked for special service.

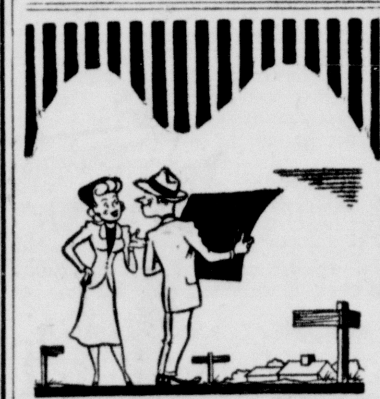

At hotels the bell boy or porter receives 25c to 50c for carrying baggage, depending on the number of pieces. For delivering packages to the room, 10c to 15c each time. For an errand outside the hotel, 25c to 50c. The chambermaid is tipped 25c per overnight stay, or from $1 to $3 a week. A check room attendant is given 10c to 15c each time you claim your belongings. If the doorman handles your baggage or obtains a taxi for you, he should receive 25c, but for no service, no tip. The transient guest tips a hotel waiter 25c minimum a person a meal. For any check over $2.50 give 10 per cent. A guest staying a week or more, alone, tips $5 a week. The head waiter in a hotel dining room is tipped a minimum of $1 if asked to reserve special table, provide special menu or other individual service.

A taxi driver is usually tipped 25c for a check under $2.50. Above that give 10 per cent.
Question: When does the bride throw her bouquet and who stands in the group to receive it?
Answer: On her way upstairs to change to her traveling clothes, she throws her bouquet over the railing. Her attendants stand in a group at the foot of the stairs. At some weddings, all the single girls stand in the group. Whoever catches it is supposed to be the next bride.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Plan Furlough For Pressed Steel Car Plant In July

McKEES ROCKS, Pa., June 14.—(INS)—About 2,200 employees of the Pressed Steel Car company in McKees Rocks were told today to prepare for a month's furlough, beginning late in July.

Only one division, which manufactures miscellaneous items for the export trade, will continue work. The sharp curtailment, according to John I. Snyder, president of the firm, is necessitated by failure of the railroads to order new cars. Snyder said further that the company's large plant in Mt. Vernon, Ill., will be closed during August.

Jameson Nurses Above Average, State Reports

Excel In Scholastic Rating, Department Of Public Instruction Reveals

Jameson Memorial hospital student nurses stand far above both the state and national average in scholastic rating, according to a report just received by J. F. Friedheim, superintendent of the hospital, from the Department of Public Instruction.

The Bureau of Licensing, State Board of Examiners for the Registration of Nurses, found in the examinations conducted between September, 1947, and April, 1948, that the local students stood high above the state average as a whole, which in turn excelled the national rating.

They stood out particularly in pharmacology, medicine, and obstetrics, but were also outstanding in other branches of nursing skill.

The report was received with a great deal of gratification by the hospital officials, as it not only reflects on the outstanding ability of the teachers and students, but gives the hospital additional recognition in scholastic circles.

At 9:50 p. m. the B truck was summoned to 37 North Beaver street to assist a man in gaining an entrance to his home after he had locked himself out.

He told newsmen after testifying before the House un-American Activities committee in a closed session, that he has submitted his resignation as an associate professor of physics at the University of Minnesota.

Setting Here For Serious Accident

Several days ago The News carried an item of a man who slipped on a banana peel on a downtown street and broke his ankle. A re-occurrence of the accident can take place. Thoughtless citizens are careless with such trash as banana peels, for almost daily, at noon, banana peels are thrown carelessly on the sidewalks downtown. The foot poised unknowingly over the peel in the above photo could, seconds later, be seriously injured. Let us make today and every day, be "Golden Rule Day" and think of the other fellow once in a while. (Editor's Note)—The City of New Castle has provided conveniently located trash cans, for our use.

Steel Wage Talks Start Wednesday In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, June 14.—(INS)—The first wage talks in the basic steel industry are scheduled to open in Pittsburgh tomorrow.

The CIO United Steelworkers will begin negotiations with the U. S. Steel Corporation, with CIO-USW President Phillip Murray heading the union delegation and John A. Stephens, vice president in charge of industrial relations, conducting negotiations for the five subsidiaries of the steel firm, employing some 170,000 production workers.

The union will demand a fourth-round wage increase, pensions, insurance, guaranteed minimum wage and other social benefits.

The company has already notified Murray that it doesn't feel pensions have a place in the present negotiations.

The negotiators will have 30 days in which to work out an agreement, after which time the union is permitted to strike under the wage reopening clause.

JOANNE LEIVO

SHOWER HONOREE

Miss Donna Shellito and Mrs. Martin Holtzapple entertained at a pre nuptial shower, Monday evening in the home of the former 1402 Highland avenue. The shower was in honor of Miss Joanne Leivo, bride elect of June 16.

A scanty lunch was served at a table prettily appointed in yellow, green and white, centered with a lovely floral arrangement of yellow and white roses and daisies, flanked by lighted green tapers. Places were marked with individual wrist corsages of yellow and white daisies. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. C. N. Shellito.

The honoree was then showered with an array of lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature for use in her future home.

Miss Leivo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. A. Leivo, of 110 Glenmoore Blvd., will become the bride of Robert A. McLean, nephew of Miss Garnet Rhodes, of 507 Garfield avenue, at an open church wedding, Thursday afternoon, June 16, at 4 o'clock, in the First U. P. church.

GRADUATION BALL

HELD FOR STUDENTS

Lawrence County Union of Sodalities sponsored a semi-formal dance for the Catholic graduates of Lawrence County in the Cathedral ballroom, Saturday evening. Dancing was from 9 to 12 o'clock and music furnished by a popular local orchestra.

The girls were lovely in their spring formals amid the beautifully decorated hall—the class colors of white and gold being used throughout.

About 250 people attended this gala affair. Climax of the evening was the grand march led by Albert Cubellis and Edward DeCarbo.

During intermission, door prizes were won by Miss Anne Morrone, graduate of Shenango High School; Louis Grell, a graduate of Union High School; and Miss Helen B. Venditto.

The affair proved a huge success due to the untiring efforts of CHICAGO, June 14.—(INS)—Walker Cooper of the Cincinnati Reds and Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees moved into the lead among the catchers today for a starting berth in the annual major league All-Star Baseball game.

Cooper, who was traded yesterday by the New York Giants, passed Roy Campanella of the Brooklyn Dodgers and polled 6,306 votes in the early balloting. The negro star has 5,892.

Berra forged ahead of Birdie Tebbets of the Boston Red Sox by amassing 6,417 tallies to the Sox receiver's 4,656.

Ted Williams, Red Sox outfielder, still maintained his lead in total votes with 8,721 of the 22,398 ballots counted to date.

BOSTON, June 14.—(INS)—The Boston Red Sox announced Monday acquisition of Walter Masterson, right-handed pitcher, from Washington. Masterson was obtained in trade for Outfielder Sam Mele and Maurice Harris, south-paw pitcher.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

PROVIDING weather conditions are ideal, P. J. Flaherty Memorial field will be a seething mass of humanity when the Indianapolis Clowns play the City league All-Stars at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday. Last season, more than 4,000 spectators watched the national diamond drama unfold 6-4, in favor of the Clowns who intermixed comedy with class. Their team this year is every iota as good as that of 1948, while the All-Stars are said to be as good, if not better than the 1948 outfit. The first washing machine, designed by William Blackstone of Bluffton, Ind., in 1874, was a square box lined with ribbed strips of wood, inside which a round wooden "dasher" was rotated by means of a geared handle. Cohen, Smiley, Opposing Pitchers In Clowns, All-Stars Game

Teams Clash Here Wednesday Night

Class And Comedy To Feature When Indianapolis Team Plays Stars

DRAKE AND FAZZONE, LEAD-OFF HITTERS

When fans and fanettes jam P. J. Flaherty Memorial Field at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday to watch the Indianapolis Clowns and the City League All-Stars clash they'll see not only class but comedy and possibly as good, if not a better game than that played last year although that set was as nice a game as one would want to see. It ended 6-4 in favor of the Clowns.

According to the manager of the Indianapolis club, he intends to start Jim Cohen, brother of Bob Cohen, New Castle mail-carrier, on the hill to oppose Bo Smiley, who Manager DeMonaco has selected as his first twirler.

Cohen was one of the leading hurlers at Camp Lee, Va., in war days, later pitched for the Havana LaPalomas and joined the Clowns last season. He was selected for both the East-West classic at Comiskey Park, Chicago, and the All-Star set at Yankee Stadium.

last year. Against the Homestead Grays last year he lost a 1-0 game at Pittsburgh.

Batting Order
Clowns: Drake, cf; Fazzone, cf; Williams, ss; B. Marky, rf; Neil, 2b; Ekenoski, c; Hariston, 3b; Tatum, 1b; Elaywood, c; Merchant, lf; Cohen, p.
All-Stars: Robinson, rf; B. Marky, lf; Ekenoski, c; Evans, 1b; Stolica, 3b; Koszela, 2b; Black, ss; Smiley, p.

The Indianapolis Clowns have an aggregation of hurlers to use should Cohen be humbled. They carry Eddie Peattie, Andy Porter, Eddie (Peanut) Davis, Manuel Godines, Harry Butts, Leo Adkins and Raydell Maddon. Leonard Pigg is a reserve catcher and Charlie Brewer a left fielder. Sherwood Wilson is a utility man.

Manager DeMonaco, who will be assisted by Huck Davies of University, Hen Ricco of Croton and Jim Rote of Frank's Grille, can also bring into service on the mound Cook of Croton, Snow of Frank's Grille, D. Orlando of Ecclesian club, Attaviano of West Pittsburg and Savano of the Lawrence Independents.

He is also fortified against any weak spots in the line-up as he is holding in reserve as replacements players as follows: Semansky, catcher; Lawrence Indies; P. Rossano, second baseman; Ecclesian club; M. Annarella, third baseman; Ecclesian club; Magusiak, shortstop; Lawrence Indies; and Aloe, West Pittsburg; Hilke, Union Civics and J. Tropea, Lawrence Indies as outfielders.

Cerdan-LaMotta Battle Wednesday

Crowd In Detroit May Exceed Louis And Pastor 33,868 Mark, Frenchman Worried

By CHARLES EINHORN
(International News Service Writer)
DETROIT, June 14.—A crowd which may exceed the 33,868 of the Joe Louis-Bob Pastor bout in Detroit ten years ago is ready for tomorrow night's Cerdan-LaMotta fight.

Should the turnout for this middleweight title scrap hit the 30,000 mark, the sponsoring International Boxing Club might have due cause for embarrassment. The IBC then would have to draw more than that for the "real big one" the Ezzard Charles-Joe Walcott set for the heavyweight crown in Chicago next week. And that is going to take some doing.

Cerdan Frets
The IBC, however, may be counted upon to cloak its shame in gate receipts. Gross intake for tomorrow night's match, which is to occur at second base in Briggs Stadium, may near or pass $300,000, without benefit of radio, television, newsreels or slow-flying aircraft.

But the promoters weren't the only ones with reason to fret today. Monsieur Cerdan, the champion, was doing plenty of it, via a battery of interpreters and American representatives who descended upon the local boxing commissioner, Floyd Stevens, with accusing fingers.

They wanted to know what Stevens intended to do about the officials for tomorrow night's fight. They reminded the commissioner that Detroit has long been a pro-LaMotta town and that Cerdan's native casablanca will not be represented at its fullest for tomorrow's affair.

UMPIRES WILL MEET TONIGHT

There is a special meeting of the Lawrence County Umpires Association at 8 o'clock tonight at 8 o'clock, and Albert Conti, the umpire who will discuss their new uniforms that are being ordered.

Nats Lose To Youngstown 3-1, Then Capture Nightcap 10-1

Wagner Wins Eighth, Kiel Hits 5th Homer

New Castle's vastly improved Nats, didn't have to take any back seat from the league-leading Youngstown Athletics last night in a twin-bill, getting an even break. Youngstown won the first game 3-1, the Nats going on a rampage to take the night-cap 10 to 1.

Thus the series of four games wound up even-Stephen, the Nats won two, the Athletics took two.

Wagner Wins Eighth
The veteran Frank Wagner, having regained his old-time form, racked up his eighth win of the year, against four defeats, last night as he set the league toppers down with four hits, all singles, and fanned eight batters. The "Wag" was never in any trouble.

Herman Kiel, the big first baseman of the Nats, gave the crowd of around 500 something to cheer about by bawling a grand slam home run off Mike Donahue pitcher over the center-field fence as he led off in the second inning. It was Kiel's fifth homer since joining the Nats ten days ago.

Matarazzo Walks 17 Men
The veterans Felix Matarazzo was the victim of the first game, as the Nats couldn't hit Donahue with men on base. Matarazzo gave up nine hits and could have won it with a little hitting support, but "Old Man Hard Luck" is dogging "Bucky".

Len Matarazzo of Mahoningtown, pitching for Youngstown in the second game set what is believed to be a Mid-Atlantic league record for 1949 by walking 17 Nats. His successor, Heater, walked three.

At Vandergrift Tonight
The New Castle team will be at Vandergrift tonight and Wednesday, for a two-game series, then move to Butler for games, on Thursday and Friday. The Nats will be back home Saturday and Sunday to battle the rejuvenated Johnstown Johnnies, at 8 o'clock and 2:30.

The Rain Came
A great many of the fans didn't stay to sit in on the big New Castle rally in the seventh inning, as the sudden rainstorm caused most of the fans to head far home in the top of the seventh.

The rain stopped the game for about 20 minutes, and then play was resumed with Youngstown having men on second and third and no outs, but young Gene Bilo and Mike Gipp took care of that situation. Gardner fled to Bilo, and when Panceo raced for home was a "dead pigeon" as Bilo put a perfect strike into the hands of Mike Gipp, New Castle's newly acquired catcher, for a double play, then Richardson fled to Feltman and the inning was over.

Probably a little angry at having to resume play, the New Castle boys tore into Mister Matarazzo.

RESULTS YESTERDAY

and gave him "the works" for six runs, on four hits, and a donation of four walks, and an error by Wilhelm.

Gipp Hits Triple
During the big seventh Catcher Gipp had a tremendous triple to deep left, Reed Maier had a double and Marande and Bilo singled. Wagner fanned three men in the top of the ninth with Bob Betz having a harmless single.

Up until the seventh Matarazzo had given New Castle two hits, a triple by Bilo and a single by Del La Torres, who replaced Mongiello at third in the fourth inning of the second game. Bilo had two hits, getting a single in the seventh, and drove in two runs with his triple.

Medich Reports
Betz was the big gun for Youngstown in the first game solving Buchioni for two doubles and a single. Panceo had two singles. Kiel and Feltman had two hits each for the Nats in the first encounter. Kiel's homer was the only run the Nats could muster.

Either Cook or Churchill will draw the pitching job at Vandergrift tonight, Mongiello intimated, Alex Medich of Duquesne reported to New Castle last night. He is a big strapping 205 pound right hand hurler.

DeCarbos Trounce Blackhawks 6-1

Behind the three-hit hurling "Babe" McFarland the DeCarbo Bombers defeated the Blackhawks 6 to 1 in a city league game last night, at Gaston Park, being tagged as the losing pitcher, being tagged as the losing pitcher, being tagged as the losing pitcher.

The Shamrocks play the West End Civics of Ellwood City at Gaston Park, it was announced by Manager Sammy Calazza.

The Shamrocks last night 8 to 3, with Morgan the winning hurler, and Greg Ross the loser. Heavy hitting was done by Tempy, Fava and G. Ross.

The East Side Shamrocks upset a game but outclassed Pennsy Railroad team last night at Rose avenue 10 to 0, with Dinks Lane the winning hurler and giving up but two hits. Heavy hitters in the game were—Miller, D. Doran, P. Hawkins, C. Hawkins, Cuscino, and F. Jenkins.

The Shamrocks will have their regular weekly meeting at the Y tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Moose Club trimmed the National Guards 3 to 2 in a softball loop game at Cascade field last night. The Moose are leading the softball market.

WALMO MARKET WINS
Dick Jenkins hurled the Walmo Market to a 9-to-5 win over the South Side in a Legion League contest Monday.

South Side got only four hits off the young twirler.

Lowell Hits New Galilee 8-1

Score Four In First And Coast To Easy Win; League Meeting Scheduled Thursday

Lowellville again hit the 500 mark last night with an 8-1 County League win over New Galilee at the latter's field.

The Ohioans outdid New Galilee 9 to 8 but got timely bingles and tight pitching in the clutch from Olive.

Four runs in the first inning sewed up the contest for Lowellville.

Pallozzi's double and a triple by J. McCandless, both caught off men, were the only extra-base knocks.
